

ATHLETICS

BASEBALL.

Owing to unfortunate circumstances, the Senior Baseball team played only one game this year, and that on a very disagreeable day. The result of this one game however was a victory for the Saints, and they showed by their playing that they had a strong team, and it is to be regretted that they could not succeed in arranging at least one game for the championship of P. E. Island. However the Orlebars who were handily defeated by the Saints, are playing a very good game in the P. E. I. League, and their showing there will give a good idea of this year's crew of ball tossers from S. D. C.

There was plenty of baseball nevertheless on the college campus, and an abundance of excitement was furnished in the inter-provincial and also inter-national games between the New Brunswick, Bay State and P. E. Island teams. The boys from New Brunswick proved to be the champions, but the Islanders are still anxious for another game to retrieve their lost glory.

ST. DUNSTAN'S 11—ORLEBARS 6.

The college team played its first and only game of the season, Saturday April 30th, when they defeated the Orlebars to the tune of 11 to 6. The scene of the contest was Victoria Park, and the day was anything but a base-ball day. The weather man must have had a day off, for it was cold and a strong wind was blowing, and in the sixth inning it began to snow. The flakes came down so thick that the game was called at the beginning of the eighth. The score was then 11-6 in favor of the Saints.

McNeil for the Saints, pitched a steady game, and in the fourth with none out and the bases full, he pulled out of the hole and didn't allow the Orlebars a run. Lowe also pitched a good game, but was given poor support at critical times. McLellan was the star of the day, both in the field and at the bat. He made a difficult one hand catch behind third, which was turned into a double play, and secured the only three base hit of the day. The Saints excelled with the stick, touching Lowe for eleven hits. The following is the line up of the teams.

PASSES.

First and only game a win. Pretty good start to say nothing of the finish.

That was a corking one handed stop Charlie made behind third. Too bad there was no one in the grand stand to cheer. Let's hope for better weather next time Mac.

I love my base-ball, but oh ! you snow-shoeing. Just imagine, the snow was so thick at one time that the centre fielder couldn't see the catcher.

Guess there's some class to those St. Dunstan's speed boys, when it comes to stealing bases.

Say, wasn't it a shame the way McLeod was caught napping off first, after beating out that hit?

NEW BRUNSWICK 20 — BAY STATE 10

On Monday May 16th, the New Brunswick and Bay State boys faced each other in a friendly game of baseball on the college campus. Baseball was the article that was supposed to be served up, but after nine innings the score reminded one rather of a cricket game. For the first five innings it was anybody's game, but then the balloon went up, and that was the beginning of the end. In the last half of the fifth with two out, the New Brunswickers bunched a few hits, and these added to some costly errors on the part of the Bay State boys netted them eight runs. The Massachusetts boys then steadied down again, and although the remainder of the game was very interesting the lead was too great for them to overcome, and the final score was 20-10 in favor of New Brunswick.

NEW BRUNSWICK		BAY STATE
Doyle	Catcher	McIntyre
Nealy	Pitcher	McLellan
McInerny	1st Base	I. Smith
McCormack	2nd Base	Cavanagh
Conway	3rd Base	R. Smith

Umpire Couture.

On Thursday May 19th, the P.E. Island and New Brunswick teams clashed, and the result was another victory for the boys from across the straits. This was the best game played on the campus this year, and up till the seventh inning it was all P. E. Island, but then they lost their nerve for a short time and the New Brunswick boys won out by the score of 14 to 11. McNeill and McLellan were in the points for the Island team, while McCormack and Doyle were the battery for New Brnnswick.
