

ALUMNI

Mr. W.J. O'Leary '23 has recently entered St. Augustine's Seminary, Toronto, Last year he was editor-in chief of Red and White, and to him is due a great deal of credit for his unselfish interest in advancing the standard of this magazine. Red and White has much to thank him for.

Mr. Joseph Kiggins '20 is now principal of Alberton High School. Previously he was on the staff of Georgetown High School. We congratulate him on his appointment.

Mr. Lloyd McIntyre who attended St. Dunstan's in 1919 is now a member of the police force of Winnipeg.

Mr. Ernest J. Smith, who completed the Fourth Year here, is now attending Normal School in Calgary, Alberta.

We regret to learn that Mr. Theo Monaghan, B. A. was obliged to leave Guelph Noviate on account of sickness. He, at present, is registered at the McDonald Hotel, Regina. We heartily wish him complete restoration of health.

Mr. James Murphy '22 is at present employed in Cicero, Illinois.

* * * * *

The patronage solicited by the Editor of this department in the December issue, is again extended to the alumni and to all subscribers who have helped to make Red and White a success. We further extend an invitation to all subscribers and Alumni, whose friends and relatives at one time attended St. Dunstan's to communicate their whereabouts to us.

